

Downpours Create Electrical Faults on Gold Coast

Recent heavy rainfall has created havoc with electrical installations on the Gold Coast and Hinterland.

Reports of power failures due to safety switches tripping has been the most common problem. These switches are an important safety device and as such it is imperative that you contact an electrical contractor to assess and rectify the problem.

Wired Air is on call 24 / 7 for emergency repairs.